REPORT OF LIBRARIAN

The year's work has been satisfactory in the increase in the number of readers and in the circulation, both of books and magazines. While we have not been able to purchase as many books as in the previous year, we have tried to get the few we have bought with our readers' interests in mind; especial attention has been given the juvenile department. Through the interest and endeavors of Mr. Henry B. Hill we were again able to obtain state aid, and from them we received twelve worthwhile books for the non-fiction and juvenile departments.

The branch library at Miss Annie Clark's is still a successful project, and we extend our thanks to her for continuing to make this possible.

The library hours are the same as last year: Tuesday from 12 noon until 2 P. M., and Saturdays from 2 P. M. until eight in the evening. During the summer vacation the time was again changed from the hours on Tuesday to Wednesday evenings from six until eight o'clock, and this schedule will be maintained for the coming summer.

Through the State Library and the N. H. Library Commission we have been able to get our readers many of the new books which otherwise they would not have had the chance to read. These two splendid institutions are of untold benefit to the small town library.

As usual the library has had many gifts, which we are glad to acknowledge here. Besides giving the library subscriptions to two magazines, Miss Winifred Rand also gave us stationery printed with the name and address of the library. Other kind friends are helping to pay for the janitor's services. It is very gratifying to have people manifest this interest in the work we are trying to do.

We are always glad to be of service to our readers and to help in making the library a benefit to the town.

Respectfully submitted,

AGNES M. CUTTER, Librarian.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

TO THE SCHOOL BOARD AND CITIZENS OF FRANCESTOWN:

I respectfully submit my fifth annual report as Superintendent of Schools.

SUPERVISION

In my report of last year, I stated that we were giving special attention to Primary Reading and discussed the first two of the five stages in learning to read; namely, (1) the preparatory stage in which the teacher builds upon the experiences the children have had in the home and community and the background of ideas and the conversational ability they possess and (2) the three phases of the second stage, pre-primer primer and first reader. These two stages are normally completed in the first grade. This year we are extending this emphasis on reading through the second grade and attempting to take each child at the level of reading ability which he has attained, and carry him on at his own best rate of progress.

The third stage in learning to read is a period of rapid growth in the fundamental habits of recognition of words and phrases and in the easy interpretation of meanings. This stage normally covers two years work,—that is, grades two and three. However, there are always found in the second grade some pupils who have not progressed farther than the first reader level, or even the primer level, at the beginning of the year; consequently any group of second grade children must be broken up into two or three sections corresponding to these levels of attainment.

In both the first and second grades we now report in considerable detail the progress each child is making in reading, in order that the parent may have a more complete picture of the child's abilities and handicaps and be in a position to discuss special problems with the teacher and cooperate with her in overcoming difficulties.

In grades above the second, the teachers are making special efforts to help pupils with their reading difficulties, first by determining so far as possible the cause of their handicaps, and second by applying appropriate remedial measures through individual or group instruction and drill. Many of the factors that determine a child's success and rate of advancement in the primary grade reading still affect his progress in the later grades. The factors which are most important are those related to general health and emotional status.

Low general health is likely to retard progress in reading, prevent good memory, and even produce a dislike for reading because the effort required produces discomfort. Evidences of low general health, such as poor color, lack of energy, nervousness, restlessness, irritableness, getting tired easily, sagging posture, etc., must be remedied, if the child is to have a fair chance at learning, whether it be in the primary grades or at any later period in the child's school experience. Normal hearing and vision are also essential to success and we try to discover as early as possible any indication that a child does not hear distinctly and see readily and without eye strain. This is one of the important function of the medical inspection and much good is accomplished by the nurse and school physician as well as by the family physician in discovering and correcting these physical handicaps.

A child's emotional stability plays a very important part in his success in learning. One who is still handicapped by habits of infancy, or by shyness, embarrassment and fears, or who gives way to temper tantrums, or for any reason is tense or strained, is very likely to lose confidence in himself and develop the attitude that he cannot read; his attention wanders, poor habits of perception develop, and the result is dislike for reading and for school.

Early discovery and intelligent treatment of the factors which prevent a child from making normal progress in learning to read, is the ideal which we are striving to attain. The success we achieve in this determines the success the pupil will have, and any failure of teachers or parents in this respect reduces the pupil's chance of success.

DEFICIENCY APPROPRIATION

A special article appears in the School Warrant calling for a Deficiency Appropriation for the current school year. The School Board's budget was cut $500 at the School Meeting a year ago with the understanding that there should be no music teacher and with the feeling that the estimate for high school tuition was probably too high. The items making up the deficiency are as follows: Teacher's Salaries, the amount included in the estimate last year for music teacher was less than the $300 which was cut and it was not considered advisable to reduce the salary of either of the regular teachers, consequently we are short $75 on this item. The estimate of $100 for repairs was not nearly large enough to cover the cost of extending the sewerage system with a tile field out of the dry well, and of course the hurricane damage was not foreseen; we shall be short about $125 in this item. The original estimate for High School Tuition proved to be correct, so we are short the $200 that was cut, making a total shortage of $400 which should be appropriated and made available immediately.

BUDGET FOR NEXT YEAR

The estimates for the items making up the first group (For Support of Schools) are practically the same as last year, with the omission of an allowance for music teacher. The following items listed under "Other Statutory Requirements" are changed from the estimates of last year as follows:

For High School Tuition we anticipate there will be two fewer children and that it will take $1,535 instead of $1,700. The Insurance expires next year and the cost of the premium for three years is $50. An item of $25 for New Equipment is to cover the cost of new seats in the Primary Room. We have been using some kindergarten chairs in place of regulation seats and this practice should not be continued longer.

Respectfully submitted,

VERNON S. AMES, Superintendent
